DEPUTY CLERK

Defendant's Motion To Compel The Central Virginia Regional Jail To Provide Him With Law Library Access

Comes now, the Defendant Christopher Cantwell, and he moves this Court to compel his captors to provide him with law library access. In support he states as follows.

- 1.) As sworn in Cantwell's 12-16-2021 declaration, Cantwell was deprived of law library access at the Central Virginia Regional Jail - (CVR) -, shortly after the jury's Verdict.
- 2.) Said deprivation was not based on any wrongdoing by Cantwell.
- 3.) Exhausting administrative procedure may take longer than deadlines for post trial motions permit.

- 4.) Cantwell needs law library access to understand and respond to said post trial motions.
- 5.) This deprivation follows a very long and egregious pattern of abuse ~~which by~~ the Government to interfere in Cantwell's ability to litigate this matter.

For ~~these reasons~~ these reasons, the Court should compel the Central Virginia Regional Jail to provide Cantwell with law library access.

Respectfully Submitted,
Christopher Cantwell
